GIRL, SNAP OUT OF IT by Kellie King is a must-read for any woman who is interested in having a solid, loving, happy, healthy and drama-free relationship with a stable man who is honest, sincere in his behavior, responsible, accountable and takes actions when it comes to nurturing his loverâ™s heart....I love this bookâ™s directness. Mrs. King doesnâ™t mess around. When it comes to giving counsel as a relationship coach, sheâ™s an upfront kind of woman. I appreciate her approach. Having done my own research on relationship books, I have found one particular authorâ™s research to be very intriguing and works 100% in my life â “ Dr. John Grayâ™s books, especially VENUS ON FIRE, MARS ON ICE. What I love about GIRL, SNAP OUT OF IT is that it brings Dr. Grayâ™s work to life. His book is based on scientific research on the brain and hormones. Kingâ™s work is based on years of personal (and oftentimes, painful) experience, growth, personal development, acquiring wisdom the hard way and studying the women in her life. Honestly, I could have used this book in my life in my 20s when I was dating. I married my husband right when I was about to turn 29. Fortunately, I figured things out myself the hard way and I landed myself an amazing husband whom Iâ™ve managed to keep happy so far for 14 years. I could tell you though that I spent my 20s doing a lot of the No-Nos that King discusses in her book. Boy, could I have saved myself a ton of trouble had I the amazing, straight-forward, no-nonsense advice in GIRL, SNAP OUT OF IT. Even in my early years as a married woman, the soundness from a wise âœolder sisterâ • King would have prevented so many useless arguments in my marriage. I was not free from drama at the time. It was not always loving.
