OUTSTANDING addition to an already great series!!! It just keeps getting better and better! No spoilers here but this chapter takes you through numerous mazes simultaneously and keeps you reaching out for more! Probably the fastest I've ever read a book and I'm already looking forward to the April release of Chapter 12 with baited breath. Grab this one it's a keeper!!!

Yet again Bella has us on the edge of our seats! In this book some questions get answered, but of course it has a 'Bella' ending and now I can't wait for #12! Thank goodness book #12 has a release date!

Bella delivers a fast paced brilliant story as usual. I cannot get enough of The Shade. I love how Caleb and Rose's relationship has developed in this one. This book was action packed and at every turn there was another shocker. No spoilers here. This is a must read and it leaves you wanting more. I'm sure we'll get a lot more in book 12.

In this book Rose and Caleb try to find their way back to the shade but not only do they have sunlight, lack of funds and transport to deal with they also have Rhys on their trail and he's closing in fast. While Rose and Caleb struggle with their journey life at the Shade goes on and while everyone is missing their princess decisions have to be made. Things are changing and new enemies are closing in and as always it comes down to who can you trust, this is an exciting read and as always difficult to put down once you've started, Rose and Caleb's journey keeps you on the edge of your seat. While this is a longer read at 326 pages it's a surprisingly quick read, the next book 'A Shade of Doubt' is due out 19th April, at least we no longer have the 3 or 4 month wait between books that we used to have which has got to be a good thing.

Man, this series just keeps getting better! With each new book that comes out I am always a little fearful that this will be the one where it loses its steam but every time I am left wanting the next installment! This latest book was no exception, in fact I think this particular installment was one of the strongest ones to date in the series. To me it really felt like old school Shade, back in the Derek/Sofia days. There's been a lot of story threads going on in the last few books, some major and some minor but this book mainly focused on Caleb and Rose's journey to try to get back to the Shade and all of the danger that it entailed. I liked that this was the main focus of the book, it allowed us time to see their relationship grow and I really loved seeing them together. Of course there was a twist or two thrown in at the end there with them, just to keep things interesting! I also liked that this whole book took place within the human realm, it was interesting seeing these supernatural beings having to deal with real life dangers and threats. The situations they found themselves in were edgier and scarier than we're used to, but I liked that she switched it up a bit here. I found it quite suspenseful and I couldn't flip the page fast enough to find out what happened next! Of course there was the usual supernatural threats to contend with too, and the plot definitely thickened in that regard! I really can't wait to see what's in store next with that storyline. While this book really focused on Caleb and Rose, there were plenty of developments and updates on all of the secondary characters and we were introduced to several new characters that are sure to factor in largely as the series progresses. Big changes for Ben, Vivienne and Xavier and it seems changes could be coming for Aiden, Claudia and Yuri as well. Time will tell! All I know is that I'll definitely be there to find out, I've already pre-ordered the next installment!

As always, Miss Bella Forrest has outdone herself! This series is like a drug - so hard to put her books down and when you're finished with the latest, you feel like a junkie whose had their stash taken away! Shaddict til I die!!!

I love this series but this one was definitely my least favorite so far. There was a whole lot more real world than supernatural world. It just didn't have the same feel as the series has had so far. I did like it a lot. Just didn't feel like the Shade series. It was a bit outlandish. I wanted to read about what was going on with more than just Rose and Caleb. Which is pretty hypocritical of me because before this book I was frustrated that there wasn't MORE of Rose and Caleb. Always gotta have an excuse to complain! Good book though.

I thought the last 2 books in this series (10 & 11) were the best in a long time. I was completely entertained and hated when I had to stop reading. Can't wait to see what happens between Caleb, Rose and Annora (hope I spelled that correctly). My only complaint is that books are now too short. We get half the book we used to get at the same price. $3.99 a pop for a 2 hour read is outrageous. Books used to be 500-600 pages for $3.99. Price should be decreased.
