Pathfinder Player Companion: People Of The North

Synopsis

Rugged lands and merciless cold breeds hard, cunning people who do what they must to survive. Such are the ways of the northlands of the Inner Sea region, and the fierce people of the deadly nations of Irrisen, the Lands of the Linnorm Kings, and the Realm of the Mammoth Lords. Learn the secrets of these brutal frontiers, whether as a master of icy magic, a hunter who tracks through the fiercest polar blizzards, or as one of the region's cunning natives, like the Ulfen vikings, savage Kellids, Erutaki hunters, or mysterious Snowcaster elves. The lands, people, magic, and secrets of this brutal frontier are yours to discover with Pathfinder Player Companion: People of the North.

...especially with the upcoming campaign arc to be set in Golarion's north! Right up front, the Pathfinder folks are doing something a little new, and much appreciated, with "People of the North." It is organized very well, clearly and cogently referencing numerous other Pathfinder products, and the face and type throughout the product pleases the eye. Obviously focused toward the discerning player looking to build a new PC from the north, it is also useful for GMs who are looking for flavorful NPC options, including information about northern nations, races, class options, frequent sayings, and character roles. Overall, it's a product I quite like and which credits the Pathfinder company. Crunch: 26 new character traits (well, mostly new), 5 new nonmagic items, 8 new magic items, 3 new feats, 4 new spells, & 1 new oracular mystery.

This additional supplement has a lot of neat magic items and feats and alternate archetypes which work well . Really great job Paizo for releasing it.

An extra tidbit of info on the Linnorm areas of the Pathfinder host world.

There's some useful flavor here, if you want to use the Pathfinder version of the North, but there isn't much good crunch in the book (feats, archetypes, spells, etc.).
